

ART - CULTURE - PERFORMANCE - DISCUSSION - EDUCATION - INTERACTION

INDIGENOUS FESTIVAL 2013

16-18 April

CONNECT & REFLECT

PROVIDED BY UNIVERSITY OF
SYDNEY UNION

INDIGENOUS FESTIVAL 2013 PROGRAM

TUESDAY

Sand Painting

10am, New Law Lawns
Walangari Karntawarra with the help of students will create a sand painting that conveys knowledge of the cyclic elements of nature and the spirituality of the Dreamtime.

Opening Ceremony

1-2pm, New Law Lawns
Welcome to Country, Smoking Ceremony, Indigenous Performance, Opening of the Festival by Dignitaries.

Trivia Night with History Society

5-6pm, Manning Bar
An adaptation on normal Tuesday Trivia in conjunction with Indigenous Festival.

WEDNESDAY

SULS Forum

12-1pm, Law Foyer
A discussion on the function and adoption of traditional customary law in the Australian legal system.

SCASS Art Panel

12-1pm, Sydney College of the Arts
Topic - Intersections: Aboriginal Art in the Contemporary

Marcus Corowa Performs Live

1-2pm, New Law Lawns
Concert by Marcus Corowa.

FUNCH and Market Stalls

12-2pm, Eastern Avenue & New Law Lawns
Clubs, Societies & other organisations will promote their Indigenous social justice initiatives.

Freedom Rides Discussion

7-9pm, Manning Bar
A discussion and documentary screening on the history of the Freedom Rides.

THURSDAY

Brunch and Cultural Teachings

10-11am, New Law Lawns
There will be an educational discussion on Indigenous culture. This aims to create greater awareness and break down stereotyping. Indigenous brunch is also available.

Traditional Indigenous Sports

1-2pm, Quad Lawns
A circuit of various traditional Indigenous sports.

SCASS/Indigenous Festival Gallery Opening

6-8pm, Verge Gallery
Opening of the SCASS/Indigenous Festival Exhibition with a didgeridoo performance.

